Each day from the 1st to the 24th of December, we'll be asking a quiz question on the theme of Christmas films.

Open the door of the advent calendar to see today's question and make a note of the first letter of your answer below.

By Christmas Eve, you'll have 24 letters in total. Then all you have to do is rearrange those letters to spell out a festive foodie treat.

Once you've worked out the Christmas phrase, simply send it to us along with your name and email address. You can submit your answer at any time between the 1st and 24th December. We'll then pick a winner at random from all the correct answers we receive. Good luck...
